Event Organizers: Asian American Community Partnership/Asian American Cultural Center

About the organizers:

Asian American Community Partnership (AACP): its mission is to promote the exchange of cultures between the east and the west through education and cultural activities. Since its establishment, AACP has organized many Asian Festivals and Celebrations, including the recent 17th Annual Dragon Boat Festival and the annual Austin Asian Occasion to celebrate the Asian American heritage and a fundraiser to benefit a local nonprofit organization – our past beneficiaries were Meals on Wheels, People’s Community Clinic, KLRU, Texas School for the Deaf, UT School of Music, Ronald McDonald House and others. We also provide cultural and ESL classes for elderly population to help them becoming US Citizens.

Asian American Cultural Center (AACC) was founded in 2000 and its mission is to provide the facilities, expertise and unique space for the sharing of culture between the East and the West in the American Experience. We achieve our mission through educational seminars and our multicultural early care and education Program, The Magic Dragon School. AACC is located at 11713 Jollyville Road, Austin, Texas.
