

Press Release

Expiration Date: February 10, 2018

Contact Person: Amy Wong Mok

Phone: 512-336-5069

Email: amy@asianamericanc.com

Saturday, February 10, 2018 - 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Welcoming and Celebrating

The Arrival of the “Year of the Earth Dog”

This is the Year to be Generous, Just and Unwavering

Saturday, February 10, 2018

10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Asian American Cultural Center

11713 Jollyville Road, Austin, Texas 78759

There will be lots of festivities including performances of Asian dances, music, martial arts demonstration, lion dance, taiko drum, calligraphy and the traditional Lunar New Year foods for everybody to enjoy. Especially for the children and the curious, there will be an arts and crafts booth for the Year of the Earth Dog.

The Dog is a symbol of a brave, loyal and warm protector. The Year of the Earth Dog renews our commitment to be generous, just and unwavering in our pledge to uphold all the values of humanity and integrity that we hold dear in our heart. We are looking forward to celebrating this propitious New Year.

The auspicious lions will come to dance and bring us good wishes at around noon. Attached is the program and the Admission is FREE.

Call 512-336-5069 for directions.